

STUDENT-ATHLETE PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

Statement of Purpose: A goal of the Middletown High School Athletic Program is to provide positive interscholastic experiences while instilling valuable life skills. The dedication needed to accomplish this goal involves a commitment from both students and parents. Each student-athlete along with a parent/guardian must acknowledge and adhere to the following participation guidelines:

I agree to:

- adhere to all school and team rules
- attend school on a daily basis
- attend all classes, arrive on time, and complete all assignments
- at no time use or condone the use of alcohol, illegal drugs, or tobacco products
- attend all practice sessions, games, and team functions, and arrive on time
- follow all directives given by the team's coaching staff
- put forth my maximum effort during all practices and games
- never exhibit any form of unsportsmanlike behavior
- support my teammates and coaches at all times
- respect my coaches, teammates, teachers, parents, and all others
- be a positive role model and representative of myself, our team, and our school
- be responsible for helping insure that my teammates adhere to all team rules

I have read, understand, and will comply with all Middletown High School Athletic Participation guidelines. I also understand that any violation of these guidelines may result in suspension or dismissal from the team as determined by the Middletown High School administration.
